

Terms and Conditions for OMNI - Password Manager

1. Introduction

Welcome to OMNI, your personal password manager for social media and online accounts. By using OMNI, you agree to these Terms and Conditions. Please read them carefully.

2. User Responsibilities

As a user of OMNI, you are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your master password. This is crucial for the security of your account. Sharing your master password with others is strongly discouraged and doing so is at your own risk.

3. Password Management

You are encouraged to use OMNI's built-in password generator for creating strong and secure passwords. While you have the option to use custom passwords, OMNI is not responsible for any security breach resulting from the use of weak passwords. The "Strength" column in the application will indicate the strength of your password as "Weak", "Good", or "Strong". It is your responsibility to heed these indicators and ensure your passwords are robust.

4. Account Validation

To access all features of OMNI, you must validate your account using the correct code sent to your registered email. Failure to validate your account may limit your access to certain features of OMNI.

5. Scope of Use

OMNI is designed primarily for the storage and management of passwords for social media and everyday online accounts. It is strongly advised not to store highly sensitive information, such as banking passwords or other high-risk credentials, in OMNI. Our tool is not built for such purposes, and we will not be liable for any loss or damage arising from such usage.

6. Liability

OMNI shall not be held responsible for any loss or damage resulting from unauthorized access to your account due to shared, lost, or poorly secured master passwords. It is your sole responsibility to ensure the safekeeping of your master password.

7. Amendments to Terms and Conditions

We reserve the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Continued use of OMNI after such modifications signifies your acceptance of the revised terms.

8. Acceptance of Terms

By using OMNI, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to these Terms and Conditions.
